Opening Ceremony

To welcome the Congress, OESO has chosen the "Teatro Sociale" in Como. It's behind the Duomo, and its architecture, as a Greek temple, will invite us to share a privileged moment. In this 18th Century building, strains of classical Italian opera and dance will put OESO's guests in the mood for the 4 day "Avventura Italiana" on the shores of the Lake Como, in the romanticism and extraordinary beauty of one of the most fascinating scenic places in the world.

Gala Evening

You can't imagine the beauty of this spot, and the extraordinary, magnificent atmosphere of the interior... The Gala dinner will be held at the Villa Erba, a mansion built in the late 19th Century with its private dock on the Lake Como, which was the scene of elaborate receptions with prestigious guests from the cultural, political, and industrial worlds of that time. In the 1920s, the Villa passed to Carla Erba who became the wife of Duke Giuseppe Visconti di Modrone, the parents of of the renowned director Luchino Visconti, who lived in the Villa. You, at the OESO Gala, will be special guest of Mr Jean-Marc Droulers, the master of the place. You will attend a "Belle Epoque" evening where you will dine and dance in the splendid ballroom in which the final grand scene was shot for the greatest of Visconti's films, the 1963 "The Leopard". For the occasion, men will be expected to have a mustache, and women to come with a hair adornment. Dress code: Any "Gala" attire acceptable.
